

Millbrook Newsletter

Dear Parents,

Welcome back after the Spring break. We were certainly treated to some lovely weather on our return. Some children have returned in the summer uniform (this is not compulsory). May I remind you that red cardigans and black shoes are essential? Children may wear white socks with the summer uniform.

Children in Year 6 will be sitting their national curriculum tests during the week of 14th May. A timetable has been placed on class dojo for your information. We will run a breakfast club during that week, letters will go out shortly. Year 2 will sit their national curriculum assessments throughout May so full attendance is necessary. Year 1 complete the phonics check in June so the following weeks are important as they practice and refine their knowledge.

Attendance for the start for this term has been excellent. Last Thursday there was only one child in the whole school absent! Please help us to continue this as we are rewarding classes daily for 100% attendance and they absolutely love it!

We desperately need toast volunteers for Thursday and Friday. Can you help? JM Maloney

Considerate Parking

We have been contacted by many residents in the local area about parents parking cars across their driveways when dropping off and collecting children and residents being unable to get out of their driveways. One day the bin men could not empty the bins as the road was obstructed by vehicles. Some cars are even parking on double yellow lines. Please be considerate to local residents. They have a right to courtesy.
